Dear Ellen and Team,

On behalf of Malia, Jaselle, Tyree, Jayden, Jaylin, Layla, Sadie, Conner, Clara, Michelle, Taryanne (pictured right) and Bree the Rescue Rooster, Hello!

My name is Camille Licate. I am the Founder of Kids for Positive Change and Creator of the Kids for Positive Change Series and "Wake Up with Bree!"

Kids for Positive Change (KPC) teaches and inspires kids to take positive action for animals, people and the planet via classroom programs and video episodes. I've been teaching KPC, in Ashtabula, Ohio, in a public, inner city school, for 2 1/2 years. The kids you see in these pictures have my heart. Most live below the poverty line, yet they are courageous, creative, smart and ARE the Change Makers our world needs now!

Bree is a rooster rescued from a NYC street. He is a social media sensation with 87 million views of his video on The Dodo! CLICK HERE Bree's message: Bree Kind to Yourself, Others, All Animals and the Planet. Bree crows, "Adopt a Bree Kind Lifestyle" which promotes a vegan diet!

Ellen, I loved your recent message on social media calling individuals to "go vegan!" Bree the Rescue Rooster IS inspiring kids and adults to adopt a vegan diet! Showcasing Bree and the KPC Team, on your show, would inspire even MORE kids and adults to adopt a vegan diet and Bree Kind to All Animals!

Meet the Kids for Positive Change (KPC) Team

The Kids for Positive Change Team hails from Ashtabula Area City Schools and St. John School, in Ashtabula, Ohio. Kids are 9 to 14 years old (4th-7th grade)

Each KPC kid has a story to tell. Some kids are shy, struggle to read, live below the poverty line, BUT ALL are united by a common cause: To Take Positive Action for our Planet!

KPC kids built Ohio's first Earthbench!
An Earthbench is made from used plastic water bottles stuffed with used plastic bags and pieces. The KPC Team presented the Earthbench project to Dr. Jane Goodall in March 2019!

KPC kids met State Representative John Patterson and asked him to help protect Lake Erie and the planet!

KPC kids spoke at numerous Ashtabula City Council meetings and successfully helped pass a "straw upon request" resolution for the City of Ashtabula!
